

Without Emptiness – nothing could exist (© 2009 by Carsten Martin Ploss)

Only out of the silence you can hear the piano playing or the bird singing

Only the empty room is capable to be filled with

Our Imaginations

Capable to display our ideas

In a state representing our current form of expression

Our current ability to move forward into time

The ability to enjoy the creation or

To widen the conditioning through our experiences

In our current condition – our current state of mind

We are the children of Life

Playing together

Creative and destructive

Hopefully in Love widening our self-conditioning

And not in Fear reducing our self-conditioning

Than ALL fears nothing

If ALL would be able to look in a mirror

It could see no sins

All is always in Balance

ALL is NOTHING at the same time

Take a deep look inside you

And you will feel it

Probably see it

Staring out with emptiness in your mind

Written by Carsten Martin Ploss on May, 8 2009

Starring out to a vanishing point

Inside you and all around you

The creative power of ALL that ever existed and will exist

You will sense it

You are never alone